Hi Jeremy

I can talk at 3:30pm. It will just be me on the phone so call my work cell at 202-615-8659. I can't promise I will be able to answer detailed follow up from original Q's but we do have answers to your questions.

Thanks

Robyn

Robyn,

I can absolutely talk at 1:30 or 2. If you could hit 3:30 or after, I would wrap in Pat Knight who's been picking this over with a fine toothed comb. If not, I'll take what you've got =)

Are you free at 1:30pm or 2pm for verbal responses to your questions?

Thanks

Hi Jeremy,

Denise, Chris and I are meeting internally today before noon to go over these questions. I can call you later this afternoon with an overview of our discussion.

Robyn,

We've been writing a number of pieces about our interpretation of ERC trading and what those markets might look like, and we're starting to get substantial inquiries - but we're still stuck on some of the questions that we forwarded a bit ago and don't want to mis-portray anything... I'd love to take you up on the offer to talk about our interpretation of the rule's use and restrictions of ERCs...

Thank you!

-Jeremy
